The Eleven Commandments

A Social TV experiment in Northern Ireland

A story about a Northern Irish Community that tell the crossed flows within communities, online and in real life.

The Eleven Commandments is based on a fictional TV channel that is funded by government and seeks to create a unique online narrative.

What's wrong with this country is there are too many Catholics and too many Protestants... and not enough Christians (Frank Carson)

What do you think?

Call To Action

A story about a Northern Irish Community that tell the crossed flows within communities, online and in real life.

The Eleven Commandments is based on a fictional TV channel that is funded by government and seeks to create a unique online narrative.

What's wrong with this country is there are too many Catholics and too many Protestants... and not enough Christians (Frank Carson)

What do you think?
"What's wrong with this country is there are too many Catholics and too many Protestants....and not enough Christians'"
(Frank Carson)
What do you think?

- He's damned right.
- He should've stuck to telling jokes.
- Come on its time to move on.
- It was never about religion.
- He's talking out his hat.
- That's all behind us now.
- We're a modern secular society now.
- I don't care.
- It's not a christian country.
The Eleven Commandments - a negotiated narrative
The Eleven Commandments

Do you watch reality TV?
Do you spend time on Facebook?
Do you know the difference between right and wrong?

A Social TV experiment in Northern Ireland
A story about a Northern Irish Community that will be created from within communities: online and in real life.

The Eleven Commandments is based on a fictional TV show where the audience govern and judge, creating a unique modern parable or legend.
Call To Action

Leaflet
Do you want to interact; select participants, make choices and say what you think?

We need you for this social TV experiment.

Sign up here

To make this project work you are going to need to work in groups - take this short personality test here XXXXX to see which group.
Can you make the life changing decisions that will declare your team’s success or failure?

THE ELEVEN COMMANDMENTS

Do you watch Reality TV?
Do you spend time on Facebook?
Do you know the difference between right and wrong?

WE NEED YOU!

We want you to interact; select participants, make choices and say what you think in this social TV experiment.

Send me an email if you want to be involved,
Anna
amzt@bolton.ac.uk or ring on 07884 034637
Broadcasting from somewhere in Northern Ireland

We need you to select a group of people to take part in this social TV experiment.

Listen to this short video to get all the details.

Work together in your teams and come up with an agreed name for the community then post here.
Score points for your team.
to take part in this social TV experiment

Listen to this short video to get all the details

Work together in your teams and come up with an agreed name for the community then post here

Score points for your team
Welcome to The Commandments Project. I am Katie and I'm so excited about this reality TV experiment. I have been working for months to get people to sign up. Think Hunger Games or Divergent for the real world, a reality TV experiment that will build stories for a new Northern Ireland. I've whittled out the lunatics and the self-promoters but now it's down to you to decide who will make the grade.
In the myths and legends of Northern Ireland the Ulster Cycle tells of the heroic exploits of Conor Mac Nessa and the Red Branch Knights. The best known hero was Cuchulainn and most of the action took place in Emain Macha, a hill fort in Armagh. Together we will build a place to challenge Emain Macha. Our world will be populated with new Red Branch Knights tested by contemporary dilemmas, a world where new story cycles can begin and where reality and fiction will live happily side by side.
Who would you like to represent you in this world? Who is worthy of the Red Knight title? Can you spot a saint from a sinner? Will there be a new Cuchulainn? Your task will be to help choose the eleven ordinary people who will become our new heroes and populate the project. You will be given some basic information and some guidelines to follow. Once you’ve made your initial choice we’re going to keep an eye on them. See if they are really who they say they are. We trust your judgement so use it to the full.
We’re starting from scratch so it’s going to be so exciting. There is a beautiful plot of land that is going for a song. There’s just one problem - a tiny fly in the ointment - and he’s called Gerry Kelly. He owns part of the land we are after and is demanding a fortune. I find greed so unattractive don’t you? Any ideas how we can persuade him to sell? Take a look at his blog by going to xxxxx and don't be fooled by his arguments.
Gerry's Blog

Gerry Kelly is the name. I'm not a man to moan, never have been and never will be. I work hard although to be honest I'm retired now but you've got to keep yourself busy don't you? It's not what the wife says about me of course but she's never had cause for complaint - never. I keep out of her way. We know how to work round each other. Anyway I'm not here to tell you my life story, no. I'm here to give you the truth - well the truth as I see it anyway. I'm an honest man, you have to be if you're to deliver people's post. I'm no thief no matter how they try to spin it. I'm here to tell you about my plot of land.

It's no secret that I was brought up in West Belfast. Well you all know the score don't you and I don't want to go into all that malarky but I decided early on it was a place I had to get out of and so I've been buying wee houses and doing them up ever since. It's taken years to get the place we like - you know what they say of course - everyone's daddy is a property developer in Ireland. Well I haven't made much but Bernadette and I have managed to set ourselves up. She's made it our home. Of course she's not pleased with me and to be honest I'm not pleased with myself but sometimes you have to do what you think is right don't you?

I took a 2nd mortgage out on it to buy this piece of land - a lovely piece of land, a piece of land for my son's. Well that was the idea until of course the Celtic tiger gave up and died on me. No I'm not looking for your sympathy, I know if you live by the sword and all. But Conall well there's no way he can build - he's my eldest son. It's foolish to hang on to it and pay money so when I heard about these yokes wanting to build the new Emnach - I ask you - well it was a dream come true. Only problem is it's turned into a bit of a nightmare - they want the land for less than I paid for it - now that's greedy. This is where you come in. I need you to help me persuade them to give me more. Click here to sign my petition.
I'm Gerry Kelly, a 69 year old retired postman from west Belfast originally. I get up early and go to bed even earlier. It's surprising what you see when the world is asleep. I've climbed the property development ladder successfully, well until recently that is. I'm happily married to Bernadette and we've had four children - all sons. I'm a grandfather now. Family is everything you know, you can forget the rest, family is what's important. That and a drop of the good stuff. You can't beat a glass of whiskey - Irish of course.
Gerry Kelly is the name. I'm not a man to moan, never have been and never will be. I work hard although to be honest I'm retired now but you've got to keep yourself busy don't you? It's not what the wife says about me of course but she's never had cause for complaint - never. I keep out of her way. We know how to work round each other. Anyway I'm not here to tell you my life story, no. I'm here to give you the truth - well the truth as I see it anyway. I'm an honest man, you have to be if you're to deliver people's post. I'm no thief no matter how they try to spin it. I'm here to tell you about my plot of land.

It's no secret that I was brought up in West Belfast. Well you all know the score don't you and I don't want to go into all that malarky but I decided early on it was a place I had to get out of and so I've been buying wee houses and doing them up ever since. It's taken years to get the place we like - you know what they say of course - everyone's daddy is a property developer in Ireland. Well I haven't made much but Bernadette and I have managed to set ourselves up. She's made it our home. Of course she's not pleased with me and to be honest I'm not pleased with myself but sometimes you have to do what you think is right don't you?

I took a 2nd mortgage out on it to buy this piece of land - a lovely piece of land, a piece of land for my son's. Well that was the idea until of course the Celtic tiger gave up and died on me. No I'm not looking for your sympathy, I know if you live by the sword and all. But Conall well there's no way he can build - he's my eldest son. It's foolish to hang on to it and pay money so when I heard about these yokes wanting to build the new Emain Macha - I ask you - well it was a dream come true. Only problem is it's turned into a bit of a nightmare - they want the land for less than I paid for it - now that's greedy. This is where you come in. I need you to help me persuade them to give me more. Click here to sign my petition.
We’ve been doing a bit of journalism ourselves. Don’t listen to Gerry - wait till you see what we have found out about him. Katie

Did you know he is a terrible drinker?
Click here hear a recent brawl in a local bar. The language!

That’s not fair you've misrepresented me here. Jerry

I was there that night and there was no brawl, just a bit of banter. Joe

Even his wife has had enough of him.
Click here to see what her friend Maire has to say about their relationship.

I think this is an invasion of privacy. His private life is just that - private. Joan

Yes this is immoral and harassment and you should stop it now.

Click here to hear what John Jo has to say about the house that Jerry sold him.

This is slander - I'll be getting my solicitor onto you. Jerry

When you are putting profit above progress we have the right to challenge your actions.

Score points for your team by adding a post on Gerry’s blog.
Gerry's Blog
Here's a local press cutting of Bernadette being interviewed by the local press. She's raising funding for our grandson to get an operation in America. There is nothing anyone can do here to help him anymore and it breaks my heart. Can you blame me wanting to get a bit extra for the land? I didn't want you to know that was the reason for selling the land - seems unfair but it could be a life saver. All this buying and selling hasn't been for me you know it's been for the kids. Sure what else is there in life? Now Bernadette has asked me to ask you to pray. I'm not a religious man myself but it would mean a lot to her so if you pray could you spare a prayer for our Jack? Click here to make sure you give him a like on the Facebook. He has his heart set on getting loads of likes.

_We'd no idea Jerry wanted the money to help his grandson. What do you think we should do? Pay over the odds for the land and help him out? Click here to vote._

I want to thank all those people who have helped us in this campaign. Bernadette and I really appreciate your support but now there is no point in going any further. It's with great sadness that I have to tell you that our wee Jack died yesterday. Bernadette says God has his reasons but you know what kind of god takes a wee lad like that? What's the point in working hard all your life when this is the result I ask you? Have the land - what do I care.

_I feel terrible I really do and I speak on behalf of the whole company in offering our condolences. We want to pay our respects to Gerry and his family. This has torn them apart? I'd like to ask him to stay and become part of the community - what do you think? Click here to vote. Katie._
Choose your Social TV Stars

10 characters have to be chosen to join the project (along with their families)

Are any of these people your choice? Agree 10 with your group and post their names here
10 characters have to be chosen to join the project (along with their families)

Are any of these people your choice? Agree 10 with your group and post their names here
My name is Innocent Laki and I'm 25. I have big plans. I am from Malawi - you probably have not heard of this place but it is beautiful. Malawians are known as the peace makers of Africa so I'd like to bring some of that peacefulness to your small troubled country. I have many bright ideas to help build communities and make money. You should see what I have been doing in Malawi. I have been working in South Africa too and I can see all the prosperity that a good tourist industry can bring. Progress is important and I'm sure I can help. I am a Muslim and my faith is important to me. So although I do not share your faith I understand how important faith can be. I am married and I have a small son. My wife Mesi is a very good school teacher and she wants to help in your schools. Have a look at my CV here.
I’m Fiona Williams and I’m coming home. It’s been a long time. You know how it is you keep putting it off and then suddenly it’s been 20 years. Anyway it’s time now and I want to invest what I’ve learned into my community. I’m looking for something worthwhile. I’m a bit of a computer buff, I’m sure that could be useful and I like to do things properly. I’m not a nerd though, I like to have good time too, I love singing, there’s more to me than meets the eye. A new start that’s what I’m after, new challenges, new people, new experiences. Take a listen to my audio diary.
Alan Cunningham here. I'm 68, a retired electrician. There's nothing I can't bring a bit of buzz to, ha ha. I'd rather be busy so I'm always on the go. I'm mad on gadgets. I would rather trust a machine than a human any day. Of course I don't mean that to include Anne, she's my wife, we were childhood sweethearts you know. That was before the bad times but we were lucky, we were evacuated out of East Belfast. Who would have thought I'd make a country boy hey? Ha Ha. I've made a presentation for you have a look here.
Oh god look at the size of me - could do with losing a few pounds couldn't I? I'm Siobhan Murray, a woman doesn't divulge her age does she? I'm 40 no shame in that, I think I look just grand. I've loads of kids, it's not an easy job is it but I've still got time to look out for myself. I've got my wee job in the keep fit business. What a laugh that is. They're queuing up round the block. You've got to have a laugh - you'd cry if you didn't. Come on you know I'm right. There's nothing a good workout or a dance can't solve. I see my ladies coming in here all bent double with their troubles and they leave light as a feather, floating down the street. No point in letting things get you down. Sean, my husband is the same, always on the go. I love my wees to bits they're our future aren't they. They keep me young at heart. I've emptied the contents of my handbag for you to rummage through - sorry about the mess - it's the best way to find out about someone!
GERRY KELLY

We've invited Gerry to be part of the project but do you think he will be a good candidate? I'm not disagreeing with you but maybe if you got to know him better you would be surer about your choice. Just to be helpful I've done a bit of digging - between you and me that is. He has put a lot of his belief in the power of the market. Don't tell anyone. I'm not playing god but we have to make sure. This is what I've found out. Watch this video.

I am the Lord thy God thou shalt have no other Gods

Just another thought to help you choose. I'm going to give you each the chance to ask 3 questions. You can ask them of any one character or split them across any 3 characters if you like. Do you have a question for terry.

Score points for your team by asking questions
Based on Kieslowski's Decalogue
You've chosen X. Are you sure she's not a killer? I know it's a strange question to ask, but doctors hold our lives in their hands don't they? They can decide who will live and who will die so it's not such a strange thing to say after all. She has agreed to let us in on her first month of being a doctor. I'm doing fly on the wall - wish me luck cause that's blood and don't even get me on the subject of needles. Aaahhh.

Click here to see my video

Thou shalt not kill

Got any questions for X?

Score points for your team by asking questions
6. Thou shalt not kill - Example

You have selected character X.

Although we want you to have all the information at your fingertips, it seems we have accidentally sent you something private and confidential via email. We are very sorry about this and ask you not to read it - to destroy it. It has nothing to do with character X.

Score points for your team by avoiding the file and destroying it.

I've put together as much of X's story as I can and I have talked to lots of different people involved. Here is the footage, the interviews and their versions of what happened. Make your own version of the story by putting these events together yourself. The best ones will be featured here with mine. Score points for your team by making your own podcast. Look out for the launch of these stories.

Click here to tell me what you think of my video. Score points for your team by making a comment.

The woman's partner has started a campaign to change the abortion law in Ireland. He's asked me to post his petition here. Click here to sign it.

Character X is a trainee doctor. Listen to my podcast to see what she has been up to this month.

X qualifies to be a doctor
A woman asks for an abortion
The baby is growing
X refuses to give her an abortion
The woman can't afford to go to England
The woman's partner can't help her
The woman tries to kill the baby herself
The woman harms herself and is admitted to hospital
X has to choose - the baby or the mother?
X choses the baby, the mother wants to live
X chooses the baby. The baby grows
The mother is dead

Do you still want X to be part of the community? Vote here
Score points for your team by voting. If the answer is NO we will give you another choice.
You have selected character X.

Although we want you to have all the information on our applicants at your finger tips it seems we have accidently sent you something private and confidential via email. We are very sorry about this and ask you not to read it - to destroy it. It has nothing to do with character X

Score points for your team by reading the file and destroying it.
Friday - May
Sometimes I hate being from this big family, everyone knowing you're business. It's the 3rd weekend he's said I have to work in the shop. It's not fair no one else has had to do 3 weekends in a row. I hate my dad sometimes, he's so embarrassing. Leo has texted me to meet him downtown. I've been waiting ages for him to ask me out and now I can't go. He'll take someone else if I don't go, I know he will. I asked Rosemary but she wouldn't do it. Guess I told her why but I wouldn't tell her, she'd only go and tell everyone else. They'd laugh at me. My brothers are always laughing at me - fuckers. I've asked Leo and I want to see him at the bus station. Maybe daddy won't notice I've gone.
Saturday - May
I met him - I did. I just ran out of the shop. I have to pay for it when I get home but I'm not going home just yet. Leo took me to that new cafe downtown. I didn't know what to have but in the end I asked for cake. I really wanted an ice cream, one of their sundaes but I didn't want him thinking I'm some kind of kid. I nearly asked for a coffee but I hate the taste - he would hate it too. We went for a walk down by the river and into the park. He's a lot older than me - got a job and all that - in the local shoe shop. Don't call it that he says and he tells me he can guess the size of my feet by just looking at them. He's right too. Said it wouldn't matter if we - you know - said that it means he loves me. Can you believe it? I can't wait to tell Ruby cause she won't believe me now.
Saturday - June
Leo's working late today and I was just thinking I'd do too. Dad is pleased like - something he don't for. I can't wait though and now he's given me an extra £20. He never does that so its worth it. I can buy something nice for tonight. Leo's taking me to a club but I don't drink - I don't like it.
Sunday - July
I feel terrible - every morning when I wake up. Mummy says I must have a bug and that I should stay home - no chance.
Monday - July
It can't be true - really can't be true. Leo says he's too young to be a dad - what does that make me? He hasn't run off but it won't be long til he does. I don't know what I should do. Ruby says I told you so - she's no help. Mummy and daddy will kill me. I don't think I can bear the way they will see it. Shame they say, shame on the family.
Character X is a trainee doctor. Listen to my podcast to see what she has been up to this month.

X qualifies to be a doctor
A woman asks for an abortion
The baby is growing
X refuses to give her an abortion
The woman can't afford to go to England
The woman's partner can't help her
The woman tries to kill the baby herself
The woman harms herself and is admitted to hospital
X has to choose - the baby or the mother?
The man wants the mother to live, the woman wants to live
X chooses the baby. The baby grows
The mother is dead
I've put together as much of X's story as I can and I have talked to lots of different people involved. Here is the footage, the interviews and their versions of what happened. Make your own version of the story by putting these events together yourself. The best ones will be featured here with mine. Score points for your team by making your own podcast. Look out for the launch of these stories.

Click here to tell me what you think of my video. Score points for your team by making a comment.

The woman's partner has started a campaign to change the abortion law in Ireland. He's asked me to post his petition here. Click here to sign it.
Do you still want X to be part of the community? Vote here
Score points for your team by voting. If the answer is NO we will give you another choice.
Character 9

9. Thou shalt not bear false witness
Thou shalt not bear false witness against thy neighbour

Looks like you have chosen character Y. How pleased are we with your choice. Y is on her way to Queen's University in Belfast for an interview. She wants to study media but she also likes the idea of scriptwriting. We are going down to the university to see what she is up to. Looks like she has decided to attend a writing class. Now I've always fancied a go at that myself - hope it's fun. Bloody hell I wasn't expecting that. Here have a listen - (click here to hear argument on abortion). But that's not the interesting thing Y has brought the mother. What is it with kids these days that they have to bring their parents everywhere with them. I don't remember doing that couldn't wait to get away. Her mother only gets involved - this is what she says (click here to hear story of a woman (a widow) being dragged out of her home in 1970's Northern Ireland watched by her children and not coming back. The children all being left on their own, divided up, separated, taken into care. The young daughter remembers her mummy crying and the denunciation of her best friend - tout!). It wasn't a funny moment to be honest - the teacher went dead quiet, ashen. Y was mortified - looked like she wanted the ground to swallow her up. A student shouted at the mother - we've had enough of those stories to do with the troubles. Anyway there was quite a debate - people thinking that maybe she was afraid or very religious or something. Click here to hear the debate. The teacher Anna something only tells them that they should think about what this character's motivation was. Suggests they write it as a scene. That was their homework. Anyone fancy a bit of homework? I'll bet there is someone who does. Score points for your team by writing the scene. Afterwards I found this letter on the desk.

Dear Sharon,

I know it's been years and that you may not want to hear from me, I wouldn't blame you if you didn't but I have some information for you that may wake up for what has happened in the past. There isn't a day goes by when I don't think of you and what happened. I feel bad although I know that what I did wasn't the worst part of it.

I feel ashamed. Admitted that I was a coward of Sean and what he'd do to me that I said what everyone was thinking. I should have never called your mother a trait. She wasn't one was she? We know that now.

Anyway I want to make it up to you so I've been doing some digging. It could help find where she is buried. I've found a woman who was there. Someone who saw her in her death. She didn't kill her but she knows where she was killed. She's willing to tell us where she is. You could bury her properly. I've also dug up lots of information on this terrible tragedy and I'd like to pass it on to you.

I don't know anything about your life - mine has treated me kindly. I've a job I love, a son although the marriage hasn't lasted. How about you? I don't see much of my son these days - he's off and away at university - but that's as it should be. Miss him terribly.

Yours begging forgiveness,
Anna

I don't know about you but I want to take a look at these documents but first of all I've agreed to ask you all to make some suggestions about where Y should study or if she should study at all. Make your suggestions here. Score points for your team by making suggestions.

Y wants to work out what happened in the past but her mum won't give her the documents will you help her? Click here if you want to help. Score points for your team by helping.

Y is as pleased with your help she's decided to become a journalist. As a thank you she has made available some footings. Have a look here.

Y's podcast of what she finds out with your help.

I'm back and I have some new information about a woman who was known as Y's grandmother. He was young. It turns to meet the woman. The woman was quite friendly but a bit confused. She draws on and listens to the story. "It's what the lady from the trouble with her grandmother. She's been put to death. She always knew she could feel the presence. The lady has a way of keeping her story to herself. She's happy for her kids to know.

All of the above are in Y's grandfather. Y's mum people talking about her grandmother. People speak well of her.

Y goes to Z University
Dear Shona

I know its been years and that you may not want to hear from me. I wouldn't blame you if you didn't but I have some information for you that may make up for what has happened in the past. There isn't a day goes by when I don't think of you and what happened. I feel bad although I know that what I did wasn't the worst part of it.

I feel ashamed. Ashamed that I was so scared of Sean and what he'd do to me that I said what everyone was thinking. I should never have called your mother a tout. She wasn't one was she? We know that now.

Anyway I want to make it up to you so I've been doing some digging. It could help find where she is buried. I've found a woman who was there. Someone who drove her to her death. She didn't kill her but she knows where she was killed. She's willing to tell us where she is. You could bury her properly. I've also dug up lots of information on this terrible tragedy and I'd like to pass it on to you.

I don't know anything about your life - mine has treated me kindly. I've a job I love, a son although the marriage hasn't lasted. How about you? I don't see much of my son these days - he's off and away at University - but that's as it should be. I miss him terribly.

Yours begging forgiveness
Anna
I found this letter on the desk.

I don’t know about you but I want to take a look at those documents but first of all I’ve agreed to ask you all to make some suggestions about where Y should study or if she should study at all. Make your suggestions here. Score points for your team by making suggestions.

Y wants to work out what happened in the past but her mum won’t give her the documents will you help her? Click here if you want to help. Score points for your team by helping.

Y is so pleased with your help she’s decided to become a journalist. As a thank you she has made available some footage. Have a look here.

Y’s podcast of what she finds out with your help.

Anna has a statement from an unknown woman who says she drove Y’s grandmother to her death. Y asks to meet this woman. This woman agrees and is friendly but can’t stand still as she dished out school dinners. She likes to be busy. Y asks her about the incident with her grandmother. The woman says she doesn’t talk about the Troubles but she can offer them a really good cake. Y is angry and wants more information but the woman just pushes the cake at her. Click here for her cake recipe.

A video of the funeral of Y’s grandmother. Y records people talking about her grandmother. People speak well of her.

Y goes to Z University
Here are a range of secret documents and interviews about Y's grandmother and what happened. Work with your group to piece together the events and write a short report to Y about your conclusion.

Remember not everyone will tell the truth
I don't know about you but I want to take a look at those documents but first of all I've agreed to ask you all to make some suggestions about where Y should study or if she should study at all. Make your suggestions here. Score points for your team by making suggestions.

Y wants to work out what happened in the past but her mum won't give here the documents will you help her? Click here if you want to help. Score points for your team by helping.

Y is so pleased with your help she's decided to become a journalist. As a thank you she has made available some footage. Have a look here.

Y's podcast of what she finds out with your help.

Anna has a statement from an unknown woman who says she drove Y's grandmother to her death. Y asks to meet this woman. This woman agrees and is friendly but can't stand still as she dishes out school dinners. She likes to be busy. Y asks her about the incident with her grandmother. The woman says she doesn't talk about the Troubles but she can offer them a really good cake. Y is angry and wants more information but the woman just pushes the cake at her. Click here for her cake recipe.

A video of the funeral of Y's grandmother. Y records people talking about her grandmother. People speak well of her.

Y goes to Z University
ARE YOU SURE ABOUT YOUR CHOICES?
HAVE YOU ASKED ALL YOUR QUESTIONS?

You have now selected your eleven TV stars - the new Red Knights for our social TV experiment. Are you happy with your choice? Let us know here.
Let The Games Begin

Opening ceremony for the launch of the project
Kickstarter campaign to fund the project

So now we have our trusty knights what are you going to suggest they do? Gerry has very kindly decided to join the project and bless him he's not asking us for any money for his land as long as in the long run its given back to his sons. What better legacy could he leave? We've built a road to the site put in a bloody big gate in and built a platform from which we can survey our land - isn't it beautiful?
We leave? We've built a road to the site put in platform from which we can survey our land - isn't it?
Episode One

Thanks to you we have been able to put together the 1st episodes of our new webs series. It will contain many of the suggestions you have made in the development of these ideas. Congrats and we hope you like it.

You know what to do if you don't. The team that scored the highest points is xxxxxx and there is a special reward for everyone in that team.

So what about the future? Where should we go next? Click here to suggest tasks for the group.
The Eleven Commandments - a negotiated narrative

The Eleven Commandments

A Social TV experiment in Northern Ireland

What's wrong with this country is there are too many Catholics and too many Protestants - and not enough Christians (Frank Carson)

What do you think?